

Latest treatment available at city's new cancer centre

RECEPTION The oncology area at the Springfield hospital

Putting patient comfort first

Patients who need chemotherapy can be treated in a new, state-of-the-art waiting area at Springfield Cancer Centre.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

Support is all part of the service

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

RECEPTION The oncology waiting room

NEW TECH The oncology treatment room

01245 234000
www.springfieldhospital.co.uk

Lower Lane, Springfield, Chelmsford, Essex CM1 7UU

Genesys
CMTS

springfieldhospital.co.uk

RAMSAY
HEALTHCARE

Support is all part of the service

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

'Treatment can begin within two weeks'

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.

The new waiting area is designed to be comfortable and spacious, with a focus on patient comfort. It features a reception desk, waiting chairs, and a television. The area is also equipped with a telephone and a computer monitor.